

Marcel Brenninkmeijer Chairman Good Energies

Marcel Brenninkmeijer, born 1958, is the founder and Chairman of Good Energies, a private investment firm in solar photovoltaic companies and wind energy developers. Good Energies contributes as a strategic investor to the ongoing energy transition process through its long-term investments and its support of development initiatives in the field of clean energy technologies. Good Energies is a member of Cofra Holding AG, Zug and is represented through offices in Zug, London, New York, Toronto and Washington DC (www.goodenergies.com).

Before setting up Good Energies in 2001, Mr. Brenninkmeijer was advisor to Anthos Consult, Amsterdam, The Netherlands, after having spent a sabbatical year on executive studies at IMD in Switzerland and HBS in the United States.

His first twenty years of business experience were with C&A, a fashion retailer, which gave him a multicultural exposure to The Netherlands, United Kingdom, France, Canada, Germany and Switzerland. In his most recent position with C&A he was a board member responsible for store operations in Switzerland. He has also coordinated the C&A European Environmental Working Group which he set up in 1989.
