

Mr. Juho Lipponen has a Masters degree in political science, economics and constitutional law. He has held various positions at EURELECTRIC since year 2000 and in 2005 became Head of the Energy Policy Unit, where he has been in charge of general energy policy matters, policies impacting electricity generation, renewables policies, as well as transmission and distribution network issues.

Mr. Lipponen (born 1971) is a Finnish citizen.