

Dr. Rainer Seele is presently Member of the Board of Managing Directors of Wintershall Holding AG as well as Chairman of the Board of Managing Directors of WINGAS GmbH, a Joint Venture set up by Wintershall Holding AG and Gazprom.

Following his final examinations as PhD in Chemistry at the University of Göttingen he started work for BASF AG in 1987 holding positions in "Research Fine Chemicals" and "Research Planning and Controlling". After his change to Wintershall AG in 1996 he headed the Strategic Planning Division and was Managing Director and Head of Sales Department WINGAS from 2000 until August 2002.