

Alexander Wöstmann

Alexander Wöstmann, Dutch, living in Germany, has over 25 years of experience in the energy-information business and is since 1995 Founder and Director Content of Alexander's Gas & Oil Connections (www.gasandoil.com), the prime independent news-source for the global gas and oil industry.

Alexander's Gas & Oil Connections provides, free-of-charge, every two weeks an expert-overview of the global gas & oil developments, based on hand-selected news from well over 100 sources. Alexander has, over the years, built up extensive knowledge about the global oil, gas and energy developments and its consequences.

In 2004 Alexander was organiser and Chair of the Global Peak Oil Gathering in Germany which addressed the peak oil issue in an advanced way with high delegate-participation, which led to numerous revelations and new ways of thinking.

Based on multiple additional training and teaching, Alexander has specialised in looking at developments from a future bound 'bigger picture-first' perspective and has held energy-related speeches in Europe, the US and India.
